The Mighty Meat Snack
conquers
The Horrible Hungries.

You've tangled with the Hungries before. They sneak up behind you at the library, and make your stomach growl until your face turns red. They strike when you're halfway home from school, at least ten minutes from the nearest sandwich.

If you want to be ready, next time the Hungries come around, try taking along your pocket-size secret weapon.

Slim Jim.[®] The mighty meat snack you can carry anywhere, and eat anytime. In six Hungries-conquering flavors - mild, spicy, pizza, bacon, salami, and pepperoni.

So pick up Slim Jim the next time you stop by the grocery store.

If you don't, and the Hungries get you, don't say we didn't warn you.

for part-time extra money...
or a profitable full-time business...

YOU'LL LIKE LOCKSMITHING!

you learn fast... you profit fast!

ELECTRIC KEY MACHINE

Learn at home in spare time with the fine home study course of the original, accredited LOCKSMITHING INSTITUTE. It's practical training. You learn by doing real jobs on all kinds of locks, working with the tools and equipment that come with the course. Every step is spelled out for you, clearly diagrammed...easy and quick to learn.

START MAKING MONEY IN JUST A FEW WEEKS! After the first few lessons, you'll know how to do simple jobs for pay. Do small installations, make duplicate keys, change locks. Many students report spare time earnings, even while learning, that add up to several hundred dollars extra income, just a sample of what's ahead!

BE A MASTER LOCKSMITH IN 6 MONTHS! Upon completion of the course, you receive the Accredited Diploma that certifies you as a Master Locksmith, qualified to do highly professional work, either as an employee or running your own lock shop. What a hedge this gives you against unemployment, inflation, strikes or layoffs! How great to have for extra income when you retire! CASH IN ON THE URGENT, GROWING DEMAND! Locksmithing work has zoomed in these days of increased crime and violence. Everyone wants a locksmith...for homes, apartment buildings, cars, bikes, hospitals, vending machines, banks, businesses...wherever security is essential. As a Master Locksmith, with the professional know-how to do major installations as well as simple jobs, you will find your time well paid for...and interesting, too.

LOCKSMITHING INSTITUTE does not guarantee how much you'll make or be hired to do...but we do guarantee that our graduates are Master Locksmiths, qualified professionals. It's been that way since 1948. And that's a guarantee all by itself, isn't it?

WE LEARNED... AND WE LIKE IT!

"After completing a few lessons, I started doing small jobs...earned $500 spare time. Now earning $100 extra per week."
E. E. Neal, Houston, Tex.

"Wish I'd taken the Locksmithing course much sooner. Earned $380 while training! Instructor was very helpful and prompt!"
John E. Lewis, Chicago, Ill.

"My main motivation was independence. Earned $500 part-time while still studying. Definitely see more potential earnings."
Gerald Sasostevich, Pto. Claire, Que.

"Intended to make locksmithing a hobby. Turned out to be a source of extra income. Earned $300 part-time while training."
Donald J. Brooks, El Monte, Calif.

MISSIVES TO THE MASTER!

40 MARVEL COMICS GROUP, 575 MADISON AVE. N.Y.C. 10022

Dear Doug and Paul,

I'm certain you're both aware that, after MASTER OF KUNG FU #49, you're going to receive a slew of "how could you let Larner die" letters. The fact that this is not such a letter has nothing to do with my earlier dislike of the Larner character; as it so happens, I'd grown quite fond of him lately and his death genuinely saddened me. The reason I'm not up in arms over it, therefore, relates to the way the story itself was handled, as well as the overall pattern of the series.

Larner's death was not cheap, ridiculous, vulgar, or contrived. Rather, it was a logical—albeit emotionally moving—case of the odds catching up to those who would oppose the estimable forces of Fu Manchu. It would have been more pleasant, perhaps, had every one of Nayland Smith's agents survived this latest encounter with the Devil Doctor—but it also would have added an out-of-place aspect of anti-realism to an otherwise convincing six-part magnum opus. In other words, while we might have enjoyed seeing all the characters once again sipping tea together in London, things don't always happen the way we'd like—and Larner's death made the elements of danger in MOKF seem very, very real.

In terms of pure story, "The Affair of the Agent Who Died" was the point where the building of suspense and unpredictability through past issues really paid off. I was completely convinced it was Black Jack Tarr who was going to die (especially after his confrontation with Fu Manchu on page 6), and heaved a sigh of relief upon his return nine pages later. At that point, however, I finally did suspect that it was Larner who would be snuffed; after all, he's virtually the only member of the MOKF cast who did not narrate a chapter in this series—not to mention the high mortality rate among fictional munitions experts.

The artwork this issue was the best since "Fight Without Pity." The attention Paul devoted to detail, particularly in the opening pages, was really appreciated. And, of course, Shang-Chi's fight with Shaka Kharn came off splendidly. As always, MOKF is one of the best drawn books on the market.

I'm avidly looking forward to the wrap-up of this six-part epic, hoping the price of victory over Fu Manchu has already been extracted. And finally, thanks for printing Bill Wu's latest letter; it made for some very interesting, thoughtful reading.

Ed Via
1648 Dean Road
Roanoke, VA 24018

Bill Wu's most recent letter, analyzing our atypical portrayal of Fu Manchu in #50, will be printed next issue, Ed. In the meantime, additional comments of the death of James Larner follow...

Dear Doug and Paul,

I've just finished reading "The Affair of the Agent Who Died," and I feel as if I just lost a good friend. From his first appearance in MOKF #40, Larner has been one of the most believable characters I have ever encountered in fiction. A loser who could have been one of life's winners, but who just didn't want to know about it. Sure, he did his job and could take out the bad guys with the best of them, but one always felt he was merely going through the motions and didn't really give a damn. Still, there was the impression that, had he lived, Larner might have been able to overcome Jennie's death and get it together both emotionally and intellectually. Shang-Chi and the others could have been the friends and companions he had so long denied himself. But he is dead now, so who is to know?

Larner deserved a few breaks. Instead, he died...and I almost cried because of it.

Robert Snedden
56, Carronside Street
Falkirk, Stirlingshire, Scotland

Dear Marvel People,

Never was I more distraught over the death of a comic character than when Gwen died in SPIDER-MAN...but I held my piece. Then, perusing the savage pages of CONAN, I watched as Fafnir was dumped overboard by some vile Turanian...but I raised no cry. Later, I was subjected to the deaths of Hawk and Grok in WAR OF THE WORLDS, a new high point in my anguish over the demise of beloved comic characters...but I said nothing.

I say something now.

Gentlemen and ladies, never has the loss of any character so disturbed me, caused me such grief and despair, forced me to scream and snarl in such extreme outrage, as has the death of Larner in MASTER OF KUNG FU #49. I am hurt, I am furious...but I think I can almost see why it had to happen this way. Still, Larner had grown on me to such an appealing extent that I cannot remain silent. He can never come back, I know; nevertheless most of us will never forget him...even though we hardly knew him.

Farewell, Larner! In life you were crude and tragic, in death you were nobility itself. In both, we loved you.

The Gray Mouser
University of Guelph
Guelph, Ontario, Canada N1G 2W1

Paul and Doug both echo your sentiments, Gray; thanks for expressing them with the proper mixture of anger and grief.

(But tell us...are you the one who hangs out with Fafnir—or Doug's long-lost gray rodent-chasing kitten from the blurry summer of '67?)

Dear Doug, Paul, and Pablo,

Gentlemen, it is my firm belief that as of this moment there is no other comic book on the stands that equals the quality of MOKF. The only one that comes faintly close is DRACULA. All the others are working in a shadow: Yours.

Actually, when I first began reading this title (#32), I never really knew what was going on; the characters were so alive (and there were so many of them!), and so damned real. They still are. Then the "Cat" issues came out and I was really hooked from that point on. I never have gotten over Paul Gulacy—Lord, what an artist! Almost overnight, the mag surged from obscurity into a glaring spotlight of admiration.

And then...you began the impossible with "Prelude: Golden Daggers (A Death Run)." Since then, this has been my all-time #1 title, and I think about it constantly...

But now that I've stalled long enough, I've just got to tell you how much I enjoyed Part 5: "The Affair of the Agent Who Died." Without a doubt, it's the best comic book story to come along since...last issue. Another winner, in other words, and here's where we see Dougie at his very best. Fandom will kindly note that the reader did not know who would "buy it" until virtually the final page. All along, I thought it would be Black Jack; the thought of Larner dying never entered my mind, since he was "safely" playin' on the sidelines. I even thought Leiko might die...no...then Clive...rats!...Black Jack again?...hmmm. And then...Larner, dying to save the woman he hated. Damned ironic.

Of all the characters who have died in comics, none moved me like this. I must agree with Nayland Smith: "Never have I seen a pawn more nobly fallen." I cried.

The Marveriter
Box 4112 S.R.A.
Anchorage, Alaska 99502

Thank you. In closing, we can only take heart in the fact that Larner tried, tried hard, tried to...be good.

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

Hang onto your hats, heroes, 'cause here's the sizzling secret we've been sitting on for months! At last we can tell you the dynamite news! From now on, mighty Marvel—and only mighty Marvel—will be bringing you the monthly adventures of TARZAN—as well as JOHN CARTER OF MARS!!! That's right, Charlie! Can you imagine it? All the way-out wonderment of the great Edgar Rice Burroughs masterpieces brought to you by Marvel's most titanic talents! Starting March 22nd, you'll be able to pounce upon the very first TARZAN issue written by Rascally ROY THOMAS and drawn by Big JOHN BUSCEMA! Then, while your head's still swimmin', you can also grab JOHN CARTER OF MARS, sensationally scripted by our own Marvelous MARV WOLFGMAN and illustrated through the magic of Garrulous GIL KANE and Daring DAVE COCKRUM! Get to the newsstand early—send for a fast subscription—do it any way you can—but don't dare miss 'em! You'll see all the Burroughs magic as it was always meant to be—Tarzan, swift and strong and savage—John Carter, big and bold and barbarous! Think of it, the very first Marvel issue of each! Museums all around the world are probably already making room to display these historic volumes! Yap, here's your chance to possess a couple of instant heirlooms, and thrill to the kind of pulse-pounding yarns they just aren't writing anymore! TARZAN! JOHN CARTER OF MARS! Brought to you by Marvel! If only I wasn't too shy to really plug 'em! Hey, speaking of plugs—here's another unabashed and unsolicited commercial for one of my favorite mags. In case I haven't told you (lately, that is!), we also produce a merry little masterpiece called CELEBRITY. Within its slick, sleek, and shiny pages each month you'll find photo-bios about the most colorful celebs we know—from Woody Allen to John Travolta to Arnold Schwarzenegger to The Human Fly—you'll find 'em all in a plethora of peppy pictures in my own little fun-mag! CELEBRITY! TARZAN! JOHN CARTER! I know what you're thinkin'! "Why are we so good to you?" Well, don't bother showering us with gratitude—just go out there and BUY! And, while you're harvesting our cheery little cornucopia of culture, I know you're all saying, "Fiat justitia, ruat caelum!" Or, as Howard the Duck might put it, "Let justice be done, though the heavens fall!"

Excelsior!

ITEM! The Holiday season will be well behind you by the time you read this, but we're right in the midst of it as these words are being written. So, we'd like to launch this month's Bullpen notes with a very large thank you to the many Marvelites kind enough to send us Christmas cards and Seasons Greetings. We love each and every one of them. Sometimes we get so wrapped up in the writing-drawing-producing end of this crazy business, we momentarily forget one of the nicest things about our comics... the people who read them. Thanks again for reminding us with all those tremendous cards!

ITEM! Speaking of Christmas cards, all our staff and free-lancers are still stunned over the nifty one that Mirthful MARIE SEVERIN distributed among us. It's a detailed drawing of our entire offices and has just about everyone in the whole blam'd Bullpen cavorting through it. This has to be one of the wildest works of art since Peter Breughel did his last big medieval crowd scene some several centuries ago. Marie originally did the drawing as a wrap-around cover for FOOM, our fearless fan mag, and if you're one of the lucky subscribers, then you've already seen said work of art gracing your latest issue and know whereof we speak. Perhaps next year, if we do one of our Holiday Treasures, we can persuade Ms. Severin to let us reprint her momentous masterpiece. Then, of course, the only problem will be getting everyone in the Bullpen not to do anything like dieting, hair-restyling, or extensive orthodontic work that might possibly alter their appearance...

ITEM! Last time around, we laid a hint on you about a new title in the works, namely, "He's green and mean and leaves an imprint on the scene." All those who thought it might be ANGAAR, THE GIANT CELERY STALK WHO WALKED LIKE A MAN get an "A" for imagination... and free psychiatric counseling. No, we were hinting about none other than GODZILLA, the mammoth movie monster whom we think is going to be every bit as big (Ouch!) in comics. In about two months, you'll be able to judge for yourself, as that's when it will be on sale. In the meantime—after some editorial huddling with Artful ARCHIE GOODWIN—writer DOUG MOENCH and artist HERB TRIMPE are pouring their talent, soul, and enthusiasm into the frantic first issue. The series is going to be all original material, not adaptations of any of the movies (though, naturally, we're going to be drawing on the Big G's background from the films), with both brand-new continuing characters as well as some old familiar faces from the mighty Marvel Universe (and just who they might be we're going to hold off telling, just to save a few surprises for you). With the new ideas and directions we have for GODZILLA, this just might possibly be the fun book of 1977... but don't believe any rumors you hear that the first thing we did was to have art director JOHNNY ROMITA design a costume for the gargantuan one!

ITEM! Just as we were about to deliver this page to the printer, MARV WOLFGMAN, deadline conscious as ever, let us know that his wife MICHELE just gave birth to a baby daughter, JESSICA MORGAN (Gee, a wolfgirl!) Our congratulations to the proud, first-time parents and our love and best wishes to the three of you.

ITEM! While we're in a congratulating mood, let's also hear it for Fearless FRANK GIACOLA, whose daughter MARY recently made him a grandfather when she had a daughter of her own. Frank is almost as proud of his new status as we are of his inking on both CAPTAIN AMERICA and our latest hit book, NOVA. We hope you're still doing them when you're a great-grandfather, Frank!

ITEM! As a final note, our apologies to BOB PINAHA, CHRIS PADAVANO, and all other members of the FANS OF CENTRAL JERSEY. In an item in our March Bullpen Bulletin on the debut performance of the new "Ballad of Red Sonja" we neglected to mention their aid and contribution to the whole affair's success. (Okay, guys! Now will you release Howard the Duck? He's already missed important guest appearances on Face the Nation, David Brinkley's Journal, and Zoo Parade!)
